Joseph W. Clokey, organist and composer of sacred and secular music, will play organ and piano when the Palos Verdes Neighborhood Church choir presents "The Temple," a modern oratorio for mixed chorus, composed by Clokey.

The oratorio will be presented on Sunday evening, May 31, at 8 p.m. in the Neighborhood Church sanctuary, and proceeds from the offering will go toward the church organ fund.

Clokey has taught at Miami

University and in recent years has been professor of organ and has directed a small choir at Pomona College. He now lives in Claremont.

In "The Temple," Clokey has taken the most representative of the poems of George Herbert, 17th century English poet, and has set them to music.

The choir will be under the direction of Barbara Mabin, minister of music for the church, and solo parts will be rendered by Helen Rounsaville, contralto of Palos Verdes Estates, Irene Roberts, soprano, of Hollywood Riviera; Barbara Merritt, soprano, Redondo Beach, and Thomas Mabin, tenor, Hollywood Riviera.

The latter three are also members of Los Cancioneros, prominent South Bay choral group.
